

[From the PPA News, Feb. 1, 2002]

INDIAN SOLDIERS KILL 376 KASHMIRIS IN JANUARY 2002, 107 WOMEN, CHILDREN AMONG KILLED IN POLICE CUSTODY

ISLAMABAD (PPA).—The Indian army during its genocidal operations in the month of January 2002, killed 376 innocent citizens in held Kashmir including 107 killed in custody.

According to statistical data compiled by the Research Section of the Kashmir Media Service, those who fell victim to Indian army's brutalities included 246 men, 11 men and 12 kids.

During the month under review, 625 common people were tortured or critically injured by the Indian troops in the course of crackdowns upon villages, towns and cities. 630 people were arrested during the outgoing month without any valid charge against them while 139 houses and shops were arsoned by setting them on fire on using dynamite blasts.

Twenty-one persons had been kidnapped or reported missing. Relatives of these persons forcibly disappeared by the Indian army have no access to them and they are worried about their missing loved ones.

Molestation of women is one of the weapons being used by the Indian forces to terrorize people and 32 cases of gang rape and molestation were recorded during the month under review. Police and civilian authorities are reluctant to register complaints in this behalf and the victims are left to suffer their fate. The army personnel even threaten their victims of dire consequences if the matter was reported to the authorities.

TRIBUTE TO OFFICER JOHN SKALA

HON. BILL PASCRELL, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 5, 2002

Mr. PASCRELL. Mr. Speaker, I am honored to call to your attention the life of an American hero, Officer John Skala of the Port Authority Police Department. Officer Skala of Clifton, New Jersey, was killed in the Line of Duty while heroically responding to the attack on the World Trade Center on September 11, 2001.

As the tragic events of that fateful morning unfolded, Officer Skala was assigned to the Lincoln Tunnel Command. He immediately responded to help evacuate the towers after the first plane struck World Trade Center Tower One.

September 11, 2001 has emblazoned so many unforgettable images in our minds. Perhaps none is more vivid, however, than that of courageous men and women in uniform working so valiantly to save the lives of others. It is therefore only fitting that Officer Skala be honored, in this, the permanent record of the greatest freely elected body on earth.

John Skala was born in Passaic, New Jersey and attended high school at nearby Clifton High. At the age of twenty-two, he received an appointment to the Port Authority Police Department. His distinguished career in law enforcement showed him to be a man with the courage of a lion, yet also someone who had a kind and gentle heart, willing to help anyone in need.

A recipient of two Meritorious Service Awards, Officer Skala exhibited the high standards of excellence associated with the traditions of the PAPD. From assisting in the arrest of armed suspects to the performance of first aid during extreme conditions, John Skala was a public servant in every sense of the word.

Officer Skala's dedication to serving the community at large extended far beyond his work at the PAPD. He dedicated his free time to serving as a paramedic with the Passaic-Clifton Mobile Intensive Care Unit, as a member of the Ukrainian American Youth Association, and as a volunteer with the New Jersey Special Olympics and the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. John Skala was a hero, both on the front lines and behind the scenes.

He has touched countless lives for the better, and we are all better for having him as part of our American family.

On Tuesday, September 11, our American family was attacked in a way we had only seen in our very worst nightmares. The actions carried out on the people of this nation were unspeakable acts of war, targeting the very foundation of what makes us Americans. That day we all witnessed the very worst of mankind.

What the perpetrators of these acts did not realize was the unwavering commitment to liberty and humankind felt by Officer Skala and his fellow heroes. The bravery and love he exhibited in the face of terror make him an example for us all.

We will honor Officer John Skala by trying to live our lives as he lived his. We will honor John by loving his family as he did, and continuing his work to make our community a better place.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that you join our colleagues, the City of Clifton, John's family and friends, myself, and a truly grateful nation in honoring the life of a great American, Port Authority Police Officer John Skala.

“REWARDS THAT FOLLOW GENEROUS HEARTS”

HON. BOB BARR

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 5, 2002

Mr. BARR of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, something wonderful recently occurred for many folks in Rome and Floyd County, Georgia. Steve Edwards, owner of a local insurance company in Rome, and his wife Marie, read of the plight of 1200 families in Floyd County who had their gas service discontinued for lack of payment of the previous year's gas bills.

Steve and Marie read of the plight of these families and knew they had to do something. They could not save every family, but they could save at least one. They made a gift to the local Salvation Army for one family's unpaid gas bill. The sense of reward was so powerful, the Edwards decided other families might want to experience it as well. With no budget and no organization, Steve began to challenge families within the First Baptist Church of Rome each to pay for one family's gas bill. The response to his challenge was overwhelming. His vision quickly spread beyond their congregation and beyond Baptists. He believed there were enough generous Christians in Floyd County to turn on the heat for the remaining 1180 families. Steve called an impromptu meeting of various helping organizations, and “One Family helping One Family” was born.

Joel Snider, Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Rome, expressed the enormity of the situation when he stated, “Imagine being 80 years old and in poor health. All your income is represented by the $600 per month Social Security check that arrives each month. You pay $150 a month for the portion of your prescriptions not covered by Medicare. The remaining $450 covers rent, groceries, phone, utilities, and everything else. Then one day, you receive a gas bill for $800. The meter is running on your current bill also. What do you do? How do you ever scrape together enough money to catch up?”

“One Family Helping One Family,” while working with Good Neighbor Ministries, the Salvation Army, and Floyd County Baptist Association, have helped 167 families as of January 18, 2002. Four hundred and seventeen total donations had been received by these agencies. Many contributions came from individuals and families; however, some contributions represented the combined efforts of Sunday School classes and student groups. The total amount given up until that date was $112,522. Every penny has gone to help a family in need.

The entire community, including the staff at Rome Housing Authority, Atlanta Gas Light Company, the staff of the “Rome News-Tribune”, Rome/Carrollton District of the United Methodist Church, Good Neighbor Ministries, Major Kerns of the Salvation Army, Lynne Barton at Info Line, Bruce Day at Floyd County Baptist Association, Susan Seagraves, John Pinson, Armin Maier, Mary and Allen Shropshire, Doug Walker, and many others, have pulled together.

Imagine, if you will, what might happen if each and every community had a “Steve Edwards?” We owe a debt of gratitude to each person who has contributed to this effort. As Pastor Snider so eloquently phrased it in the “Rome News-Tribune” in December, “On behalf of all the families that are warm today because of your gift, I ask God to grant you the richest blessings of this holiday season. May the rewards that follow generous hearts be yours into the New Year.” Amen.

TRIBUTE TO MARGARET GOBLE MADIGAN OF LUTHERS MILLS, PENNSYLVANIA

HON. DON SHERWOOD

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, February 5, 2002

Mr. SHERWOOD. Mr. Speaker, it is with a profound sense of loss that I inform the House that on Sunday, January 20, 2002, Margaret Goble Madigan of Luthers Mills, known across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as Peggy, passed away.

Although Peggy Madigan is deserving of many superlatives, to say that she was known across Pennsylvania is no exaggeration. She was the wife of Senator Roger Madigan, and she was known and loved by the many individuals whose lives she touched. She was truly unforgettable.

Peggy had an exceptional grace about her that can only come from a deep love of others. Her son, Nick Madigan, in his moving eulogy, described her rare ability to treat every